2. All animal exhibitors in the large animal barn must sign a code of conduct with either the Junior Livestock Association or the 4-H.

3. Code of Conduct forms must accompany the signed entry form. Forms will not be accepted without exhibitor and parent signature.

4. Be sure to read the entries, fair book and judging sections.

5. All animals are required to stay at the Fair the entire week with the exception of open horse; they can trailer in for the show. The area superintendent has the authority to give permission on any other exceptions.

6. Child Animal Exhibitors 5-7 year old are non-competitive and are eligible to use another exhibitor's animal for non-competitive classes.

7. Youth age is 8-19 years old. Exhibitor must be able to feed, clean pens and handle the animal or they will be disqualified.

8. All cattle, swine, and sheep native and out- of-state entered in exhibitions, expositions, or fairs must follow the MDA Health

Requirements for Livestock Exhibited in Michigan. For the most up- to-date wording refer to www.michigan.gov/mda-exhibitinfo

9. Animal Exhibitors must attend a barn meeting at barn set up.
10. Ownership is not required for child exhibitors to show in animal classes other than market classes the exhibitor must be the owner. Exhibitors will not share animals with another exhibitor; once the animal is shown it cannot be shown by another exhibitor. The exception would be showmanship and horse.
11. Exhibitors are expected to maintain full control of their animals at all times.
12. Youth and Child exhibitors must be present during judging and must handle the animal or they will be disqualified.
13. A veterinarian will be on call; but not necessarily on the grounds.
14. All animals are to be kept clean, fed and watered by exhibitor. Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning their stalls and pens daily before 9:00 a.m. as well as scheduled barn duty. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.
15. Exhibitors are responsible for their animal's care from the purchase date through the conclusion of the Gladwin County Fair release of exhibits time in the fair book.
16. Any animal deemed unworthy will not be awarded an Award.
17. Gladwin County Special Policy: Animals will be defined as an animal born on the participant's immediate family's owned & operated farm in which the participant has an active part for the duration of the project. Definition of Immediate Family: participant's parent(s), participant's grandparent(s), participants sibling(s). Consequence: The participant forfeit's the current year's awards & auction rights.
18. Any use of a professional fitter, groomer, arranger, etc. at the Gladwin County Fair is prohibited. At all times that grooming is taking place, the exhibitor is expected to be present & actively participate in the process. Any individual who is not directly & actively involved in the Gladwin County Fair program is prohibited from grooming or otherwise preparing the exhibitor's livestock project for show during fair week. Approved persons to assist with the actual grooming of an animal include: the exhibitor of the animal, other current exhibitors at the Gladwin County Fair, current Gladwin County 4-H leaders, or immediate family members of the exhibitors. (Immediate family members include, exhibitor's parents, exhibitor's grandparents or exhibitor's siblings.) Resource personnel (excluding professionals as stated above) may be used to verbally instruct the youth or approved persons while grooming is taking place. Resource personnel in violation of this rule may be asked to leave the grooming/barn area per the direction of the superintendent. Violations of this rule may result in the exhibitor not being allowed to show in that species in the upcoming year(s) or the auction sale may be forfeited by the exhibitor along with, forfeiture of any ribbons/trophies/special awards earned with the animal(s).
19. No drench feeding, hydration or medication of any animals. Any species requiring drench medication must be approved & supervised by a licensed veterinarian. Tampering and/or misrepresentation of age, ownership, and any other irregularity in showing will be considered fraud and deception. Violation will result in the forfeiture of sale privileges and forfeiture of any ribbons/trophies/special awards earned with the animal(s). Unethical fitting or gluing of the hide or underneath the hide or removal of tissue to alter the shape of the animal, injection of any gas, solid or liquid under the hide to alter the normal conformation of the animal will also result in the forfeiture of sale privileges and forfeiture of any ribbons/trophies/special awards earned with the animal(s).
20. Three Strikes Rule: The Gladwin County Fair & Gladwin County Jr Livestock Association has adopted a new Red Penalty Tag System. Exhibitors are responsible for keeping their area clean and neat during the fair along with feeding your swine correctly & in a timely manner. The Gladwin County Fair & Gladwin County Jr Livestock Association will be using a Red Tag Penalty System for making sure all animals are cared for & that the area in and around your pens are maintained. If the inspector of the new system observes that your animal, or your pen is being neglected you will receive a red tag, with the reason for it written on the tag. The exhibitor will need to take care of the issue. Speak to the barn superintendent about improving. If the inspector notices your project or pen being neglected in any manner again, you will be given another red tag. The maximum red tags the inspector will give is three. After three red tags will result in the exhibitor not being allowed to participate in that project for one year. The Gladwin County Fairboard & The Gladwin County Jr Livestock Association may discuss the matter further.

Class 1840 - Advanced (16-19 years old)

Department 39- Overall Showmanship

Exhibitors who place first in an individual species for showmanship are expected to compete in Overall Showmanship. To be excused from this experience, exhibitors must contact the superintendent of the species they won showmanship in by 5:00 pm on Thursday. The hardship committee will review each case that night. If the exhibitor fails to notify the superintendent in a timely fashion then the exhibitor is EXPECTED to participate in the Overall Showmanship class or face consequences set by the Gladwin Fairboard. If the Exhibitor is excused by the hardship committee the Second-place winner in that individual species will be required to participate in the Overall showmanship class. Exhibitors may practice on Friday morning. The livestock arena and small animal barn will be available for use. Since the horse show will be going on at this time, contact the horse barn superintendent to practice with a horse.

Exhibitors are not allowed to use their own animal during the competition. Animals in each species will be selected by the superintendent upon permission of the owner.

The overall showmanship competition is split by large animal and small animals. Exhibitors who win first place showmanship in a large and small animal species are expected to compete in both large and small animal overall showmanship

Exhibitors who win showmanship in a following large animal class will compete in large animal overall showmanship
Horse, Beef or Prospect Beef, Sheep, Dairy, and Swine.
